

Course Content

Description:

SecurityX is an advanced cybersecurity certification for security architects and senior security engineers. It proves you have the skills to design, build, and implement secure solutions across complex environments. You'll also show you can support a resilient enterprise while addressing governance, risk, and compliance needs.

Objectives:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Design, implement, and integrate secure solutions across complex environments to support a resilient enterprise in security architecture and engineering.
- Use automation, monitoring, detection, and incident response to proactively support ongoing security operations.
- Apply security practices to cloud, on-premises, and hybrid environments to ensure enterprise-wide protection.
- Utilize cryptographic technologies and techniques while evaluating the impact of emerging trends, such as artificial intelligence, on information security.
- Implement governance, compliance, risk management, and threat modeling strategies across the enterprise.
- Validate advanced, hands-on skills in security architecture and senior security engineering within live environments.
